

AVR Global Technologies, Inc News
For Immediate Release
July 21, 2015

A global supplier of electronic components and custom assemblies

AVR Global Technologies announces business start date, corporate executive staff and mission statements.

AVR Global Technologies has set an open for business start date of July 21, 2015. The executive staff has established the mission of the company to be:
“A global source for electronic components and custom cable assemblies for our customers”.

The company forms with over 75 years of combined experience in manufacturing, distribution and global supply chain sourcing.” As stated by the partners of the company. Operations and customer support offices in California, Asia, and Brazil.

AVR Global Technologies has established a website and network of global supply partners soon to be released. More information will follow on the immediate launch of the company. Questions may be directed to : customerservice@avrglobaltech.com